Dear Pete:

I am enclosing herewith a summary of the Defense Committee of the United Kingdom. I am sorry that I can't find any of those pamphlets you spoke about, giving its complete organization. We simply do not have them. I hope this summary will do, and I shall continue looking for those pamphlets in the hope that I may get them to you.

Sincerely,

Dear Hilly:

Many thanks for the fine letters to Admiral Connolly and Commodore Shelly.
Coming from you, I know that they will have desired effect.

Our Mr. Stokes is writing a Sunday article on the Missourians in the top rank of the national defense set-up.
Please give him what help you can.

Sincerely yours,

Raymond P. Brandt

My dear Mr. Brandt:

This is just a note to express my sincere appreciation for your kindness in inviting me to the Spring Dinner of The Gridiron Club Saturday evening. It was indeed a pleasure to be your guest on that occasion, and I can assure you that I thoroughly enjoyed it.

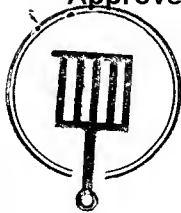

Again my thanks and with kindest regards,
believe me,

Sincerely,

A/RNOL
